

Rio de Janeiro, 4 de Janeiro de 1980

Dear Dr. Stuart H Hurlbert

Only now I was able to finish with the manuscript I am sending.

The delay was due to some particular problems I had to deal with.

Concerning the work of Petrochenko, I used the English translation of it and so I considered E. Epstein as its editor and not Skryabin, who was responsible for the original Russian text. I did my best to adapt the manuscript to the suggestions you have made and I hope it is in a suitable shape.

Any communication on the subject is to be mailed to my particular address:

Sincerely yours ,
